Chris and Jenny James present an uplifting session of inspiring singing and movement activities designed for your child care centre, pre-school or primary school. Fun and inspirational, SunLight Singing is a perfect addition to your educational program. Invite parents and carers to join this experience with their children.

The 'Sunlight Songs for Children 0 to 100+' CD reflects a world of joy in children's music with songs that inspire kids and adults alike, to be all they are – their true self.

Light, engaging and easy to sing, these songs support children of all ages to express with ease, to know how beautiful they are, and offer a foundation to experience that whoever and wherever they are – they shine.

From 'I am beauty-full for being Me' to 'Whoops is one of my Favourite Words' SunLight songs CD and books are themed with essential life skills, designed to inspire easy, fun follow-up activities that you can incorporate into the school day.

Chris was recently invited to form a team and teach school children in Chennai, India.
